

ANNA MONTICELLI

WINEMAKER

Anna Monticelli earned her degree in Viticulture and Enology at UC Davis. Her first harvest was at Château Cheval Blanc in Bordeaux, France in 2000. Upon her return to California, she was the Assistant Winemaker at Seavey Vineyard in Napa Valley for two years and then the Assistant Winemaker at Bryant Family Vineyard for four and half years before becoming Winemaker at Piña Napa Valley. During her undergraduate years, she spent a year studying at the Sorbonne in Paris and she took summer courses in Rome and Cracow. Anna speaks French fluently. Her husband, Mario Monticelli, is the Winemaker of Trinchero Napa Reserve. They enjoy sharing good food and wine with family and friends.

